ABOUT US

Active in the Brazilian market since 2000, Maxibrasil's guiding principle is to act ethically when dealing with contractors, clients, and partners, in addition to always behaving in a transparent and socially responsible manner. We believe that by following this premise, we can achieve our primary goal, which is to foster well being and to provide beauty care solutions.

Our products are crafted to meet the Brazilian National Health Surveillance Agency's (ANVISA) standards, and their excellence is guaranteed by the utmost quality of the entirety of our production processes. With the goal of offering consumers high-quality products, Maxibrasil is constantly investing in new technologies and research, in addition to providing continuous training to its workforce and constantly upgrading its strong internal quality controls.

Through its comprehensive brand portfolio, Maxibrasil offers a diverse array of beauty treatments and beauty care products.
